

Information for Recommenders

Thank you for agreeing to write a letter of recommendation for _____ to join the Ignatian Associates. We ask that letters attest to the spiritual maturity, capacity for community engagement, and interests of the applicant. Letters need not be more than one page and are not reviewed by the applicant. No background in Ignatian spirituality per se is expected. Application to the Ignatian Associates is not competitive. We use these letters to assess the compatibility of the applicant with the character and motivations of the Ignatian Associates as well as his or her compatibility with other potential members of the formation group.

Please email your letter of recommendation as an attachment in Word or PDF format to:

Applications@IgnatianAssociates.org with the subject line of “Letter of Recommendation for (Applicant Name).”

All application materials including letters of recommendation are due by December 31, 2017.

If you have any questions regarding your letter of recommendation, please feel free to email Charlene Covey at c.covey@cox.net.

Information for Recommenders

Thank you for agreeing to write a letter of recommendation for _____ to join the Ignatian Associates. We ask that letters attest to the spiritual maturity, capacity for community engagement, and interests of the applicant. Letters need not be more than one page and are not reviewed by the applicant. No background in Ignatian spirituality per se is expected. Application to the Ignatian Associates is not competitive. We use these letters to assess the compatibility of the applicant with the character and motivations of the Ignatian Associates as well as his or her compatibility with other potential members of the formation group.

Please email your letter of recommendation as an attachment in Word or PDF format to:

Applications@IgnatianAssociates.org with the subject line of “Letter of Recommendation for (Applicant Name).”

All application materials including letters of recommendation are due by December 31, 2017.

If you have any questions regarding your letter of recommendation, please feel free to email Charlene Covey at c.covey@cox.net.